Why did you choose our festival? Where did you find us?

Booths are to be open on Thursday evening, Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday of the holiday weekend. There are no activities on Monday. Tear down can be Sunday evening after the last show at 11 PM. The festival is located at the Noble County 4H Fairgrounds, 580 N. Fair Street, Kendallville, IN 46755. You are responsible for any shelter you require and for the security of your merchandise. Booth space and location will be predetermined by NIBGA. If you arrive before Thursday, there is a $10/day advance charge in addition to any other fees.

Your nonrefundable fee for this event is $ 50 payable 30 days in advance. Payment is by cash, certified check or money order made payable to Northern Indiana Bluegrass Assoc., Inc. (NIBGA) Booths over 20 feet in length may be subject to an additional charge. The fee includes two weekend tickets, standard vending space and electric service of one 110 volt / 15 amp outlet for booth lights. If you require additional tickets, they are to be purchased upon entry at $25 each.

All food service booths will be inspected by the Noble County Indiana Board of Health sometime during the festival. You are responsible for appropriate licenses, fees and the collection and payment of Indiana sales tax.

Booths will be judged for appropriateness to the festival. NO t-shirts or hat sales allowed!

I understand that if my booth is accepted this document becomes a part of my contract with Northern Indiana Bluegrass Association. I agree and will abide by the above terms and conditions.
